

Exploits in the Miraculous (Paperback)

By Steve Buza

Outskirts Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Exploits in the Miraculous is just that. It is an adventure that follows the miraculous exploits of the author, Steve Buza. What begins as a fairly ordinary life (the blue-collar son of divorced parents) soon takes on Biblical proportions as Steve encounters the reality of a living Christ. As a young boy the songs he sang in church about the Wonder Working Power of Jesus rang hollow. He saw no miracles evident in the lives of its members. Things began to change after his conversion. The author takes us on a life-long journey learning about, and moving in, the gifts of the Holy Spirit. In practical terms the reader will see that miracles are to be experienced by every Christian believer. They are not to be confined to a church building, but experienced daily in the home and on the job. From his youth to his first post-high school job doing roofing and remodeling, then working as a foreman and onto owning his own company, you will follow Steve as he learns to hear and obey the leading of the Holy...
