An Address: Delivered Before the Citizens of Becket, Mass; January 18, 1839; Upon the Subject of Slavery (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Joseph Sturges

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from An Address: Delivered Before the Citizens of Becket, Mass; January 18, 1839; Upon the Subject of Slavery Difficult as is at all times and under any circumstances the task of a public speaker, doubly so is it rendered when he feels he is addressing an audience a large majority of which entertain sentiments and opinions directly at variance with his own; but believing these sentiments and opinions to be founded in error, error arising not only from the want of personal observation, but in many instances from the misrepresentation of the wilful, the wicked, the ignorant and the designing, no apology will, he presumes be required for soliciting your attention to the remarks he is about to offer. Though but little acted upon, it is nevertheless a maxim, the goodness of which will not be disputed, that all subjects, whether of a moral or political nature, leading to intense excitement and calculated to prejudice one portion of the community against another, although the ends in view be alike easy of attainment and their results certain of proving beneficial, should...
