

Some Go Hungry

By J Patrick Redmond

Akashic Books,U.S., United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 210 x 148 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Patrick Redmond has filled his first novel with passion--the passion to tell a story that resonates far beyond the confines of the small Indiana town where it is set. Some Go Hungry tells an important tale that in some ways is timeless, and in other ways could have been ripped from today s headlines. --Mark Childress, author of Crazy in Alabama J. Patrick Redmond s Some Go Hungry is a story of reckoning. Like so many young gay men, Grey Daniels has to leave home to find himself--and he has to return home to rural Ft. Sackville, Indiana, to confront a past of fear, homophobia, and murder. Redmond deftly weaves together Grey s return to his hometown and the family restaurant with the long-unsolved murder of a young gay man and the secrets and religious hypocrisy buried with it. Some Go Hungry will have you staying up late turning the pages. -Taylor M. Polites, author of The Rebel Wife Patrick Redmond weaves an intriguing tale of bigotry, religion, murder, and personal redemption in small-town America. He has the authentic voice of...
