Fair lands, green fields, and budding trees - Sweet wild flowers shyly nodding in the breeze; O rapturous scenes which stir the heart to throb In unison with nature s living God! Yet neath the gladsome joy, I feel the thrill, The saddened memory of the inhuman will That prompts the proud and great, life to deny For those oppressed, who toil, and groan, and sigh. I want a home! the honest workman cries, Then with a courage great, he nobly tries To earn, and save enough through long, slow time, To buy a place, that he can say, Tis mine. In vain; ere he from daily needs can save, His hair is turning white; he nears the grave. Perchance if wife and children he doth own When dying, leaves those dear, without a home. My Country, for thy homeless children I do pray To thee: A little lighter make the way For men and women trying to be good; Their...
