Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Registration of Voters: Under the Reform Act, 1918 The Representation of the People Act, 1918, has abolished the right of owners and freemen to vote, but has extended the franchise to a great number of persons, including women, who heretofore were not entitled to a vote. This handbook has been written with the intention of explaining in a simple form the qualifications of voters, the powers of the Registration Officer appointed under the Act, and the procedure which will now govern the registration of voters. It is hoped that it may be helpful to assistant overseers and political agents in the performance of their duties.
