Field Manual 10-1, Quartermaster Principles, is the Armys capstone manual for Quartermaster (QM) corps soldiers and units. It focuses on current doctrine in FMS 100-5, 100-10, and 100-16. It also considers recent combat experience from operations Desert Shield/Storm; guidance in TRADOC Pamphlet 525-5 and the Combined Arms Support Commands publication Vision of Combined Arms Support; and information from TRADOC battle labs and warfighting lens analyses. Since 1775, the QMC has provided logistical support to the United States Armys combat forces. During its long history, it has developed a special one-to-one relationship between quartermasters and supported soldiers. This has been a critical factor in the success of the Corps and the keystone to its heritage. QM soldiers and units have a dual responsibility. They must be technically proficient and prepared to provide supply and field service support to the force. And, they must be tactically proficient and prepared to deploy as quickly as the combat and combat support forces. Once deployed, they must be able to fight and defend themselves. At the same time, they must concurrently provide logistical support to an extended battlefield. The QMC is one of the more complex and diverse branches of the Army. It has personnel proficiency for 11 enlisted military occupational specialties (MOSs) in three career management fields, four warrant officers MOSs, and five officer areas of concentration. QM personnel serve in every type of unit from units at the forward line of own troop (FLOT) to the theater rear boundary. These units range from light infantry to armor units, from special operations units to personnel and administration units, from artillery to signal units and from ordnance to transportation units. This manual looks at the role...
